

Week 13 – Results from a Saturday on the Make

GoTT,

The third Classic of the Season has come and gone and for once it has served to tighten things up in the order rather than stretch them out... Thank god for the toll the back 9 took on Trooper D this week. I saw him at the turn and he certainly seemed happier than then he likely was with his final result. His loss is an exciting order race's gain, and so begins the summer segment of the 2010 YGS season.

Makefield usually brings out the best in the tour and this week was no exception. Almost half of our participants were at or better than par this week although only one player went sub 70. Maybe it was the obscene heat and humidity. For the second time this season we also saw one 4-some produce the 3 podium dwellers and one of the hard luck 4ths... Nice game indeed.

So who did the damage this week taking home the big 8 points and reaching the podium for the first time this year. None other than Eddie. Lets put this in perspective, shall we. After what has to be the worst showing ever at the Masters for someone not carrying around the albatross of a 30+ handicap, Eddie has gone net 69 and net 67 in back to back weeks. One got him a show, the other 8 points and a Classic Victory. You gotta love the tour. In so doing Eddie took out Newman in match play, putting last year's semi-finalist in a very vulnerable position to miss the knockout this year. Stay tuned...

Second place went to both the Skipper and his Little Buddy... Now if they hadn't played with 2 other guys, and I hadn't heard Johnny screaming at himself at number 9 for letting his nurse get in the way of a 4 foot putt I might question some score collusion here. although truth be told I was more wondering how well Newman had to play to shoot net par and overcome the 10 he took in the sand trap on that same hole, but I digress... Skip and the Bud both went net 70, Bobby with a 98 and Johnny with a 95. The Skipper makes a big climb up the OOM while Little Buddy merely closes the gaping hole between him and the top spot.

As I mentioned hard luck 4th went to the net par boys. Newman, Matt D, and CFD are all wondering where those 2 strokes are...

Enjoy the numbers, they are all below.

Good luck to all at another new PA course this week.
